RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Every individual participant is required to read and sign a general Waiver, Release of Claims and indemnity for purposes of insurance. Anyone who has not signed a waiver will not be allowed to participate in the Ride. Every member of a family must sign the waiver individually.
2. No one under the age of 18 will be permitted on the Ride unless accompanied by a parent, guardian or responsible adult, which person must counter-sign child's waiver.
3. To ensure the safety of every participant, the Trail Boss, his Deputies or Safety Wranglers, the Huntmaster and his Whippers-in, must be recognized as being in charge. Their orders must be followed as they determine the proper course, scheduling, and order in which the Ride proceeds.
4. Abuse of animals, public intoxication, profanity, reckless behaviors, or refusal to abide by the Rules may result in dismissal by the Trail Boss or Huntmaster. There will be no refund under these circumstances.
5. Any commercial signage must be approved in advance by the Organizing Committee.
6. Stallions, mares with foals, dogs or other house-hold pets are not permitted.
7. Riding double is not permitted.
8. No smoking or alcohol is allowed on the trail.
9. Red Ribbons must be affixed to the tails of all horses who may kick. Horses are the complete responsibility of their riders; ride at your own risk.
10. The Ride takes place on private land so riders are asked to be courteous and avoid littering. Trash must be carried to litter barrels. Manure around trailers should be removed by the horse owners.
11. Boots with heels must be worn when riding as well as hard hats when hunting. All riders must have saddles, bridles, and proper tack. A helmet is mandatory for riders 14 and under.
12. Paramedic and veterinarian services will be available.

Please bring your own water and bucket for your horses
